

Undergrad & Law School Achievements

The highlight of my academic career was during my first year of law school when taking the Dean's course: 3 assignments - rumored to be exceedingly difficult. On the Christmas one received an A; for the Reading Week paper got another A. The third in May had 2 questions. To this day don't know why I only answered the first and not the second. Despite that omission Dr. David Myers awarded an A+ because the answer in his view was extraordinarily brilliant.

and not of authority. It is the existence of the ambiguity that gives him room to provide another exception to the doctrine of precedent. If he were to merely rely on authorities to justify his decision to overrule, he would be torn between two powerful sets of claims.

[This you didn't answer (b)].

The foregoing would not have been achieved were it not for the choice of study at the University of Victoria (1981 – 1984). Here is my grades transcript demonstrating where my intellectual strengths were proven to reside.
